WINNIPEG.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 20.—The Manitoba Indians were concluded yesterday. Several witnesses testified for the defense that the Indians had been harshly treated and their horses and cattle had been confiscated, but the Indians denied it.

The wounded soldiers in the hospital are all recovering.

Oster and Craggan have arrived from Regina on route for the east.

The Manitoba rifle team leave for Ottawa on Monday.

The Manitoba South Western is to construct 100 miles West of Manitoba to the Red River, and is to be the enterprise and the local government's debtors to the extent of about $7,500 per mile, under the supervision of Mr. L. L. Taylor, Mr. H. Thomas, Lieutenant, Major Boulton and Mr. Collins of Nelson. They have been appointed commissioners to consolidate the municipal laws of the Province with a view to their amendment.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 21.—A large crowd assembled at the depot last night to see the half-breed Indians who had been confined in the Red River fort, and who had been captured by the Indians.

The eleven who composed Riel's command were also objects of much curiosity. They walked in firm steps and showed no signs of weakness, but they have all gone seven years, and were then taken into their tents for three years.

They have all taken to Stone Mountain this morning.

Manitoba has decided to send an exhibit to the Dominion exhibition at London.

Out, this year.

It is to be a grand display.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 21.—To celebrate the 40th anniversary of the arrival of Archibald Macdonald in the country.

Constable McFerren, of the Provincial Police, arrested Hiram Flint, of No. 3 Co. of Light Infantry yesterday on a charge of desertion.

The court martial sat yesterday.

The losses were greater than at any other point, not excepting Batoche.

The principle arbitrators have been going on to examine and gather in every possible manner an accurate record of the losses sustained.

Without exception they have found no disposition to present extravagant and baseless claims, and representations made in many cases did not amount to a farce.

James R. Speckman, well known in theatrical circles throughout the country, is the author of the play which Bright's disease has caused a large number of his children to leave.

Correspondence.

To the Editor of the Herald.
Sir:—In our last letter we contend that the liquor law was illegal because it was a monopoly and because a special tax was laid on it without any law to support it. In this letter we contend that our country is a part of the Dominion; it became part of it under certain restrictions and practically on the understanding that we were to have the same or similar laws and rights to the other provinces.

By the Order in Council passed by Her Majesty by which the North Western Territories became "a part of the Dominion of Canada upon the terms and conditions set forth in the first address" (not the address by both Houses of the Canadian Parliament of December 17, 1867) aslant that they have the power to regulate for the "future welfare and good government" of Rupert's Land and the North Western Territory. Thus it seems that the Dominion Parliament has not also power over us to legislate as it pleases as regards to anything and that the Dominion Parliament is only allowed to legislate for us on certain terms that is subject to the terms and conditions of the address of December 17, 1867.

Two of the clauses of the address are as follows: Canada agreed to provide that the "legal rights of any corporation company or individual within the same shall be respected and placed under the protection of courts and competent jurisdictions," in another clause Canada promises to "enhance the welfare of the population of British subjects already inhabiting the unorganized territories by the formation there of a territorial administration" and the analogy as far as circumstances will admit to those which exist in the several provinces of the Dominion.

What is the meaning of the legal "right of any individual company or corporation shall be respected"? It would ordinarily mean that the corporation and its shareholders would be left to him or them, or at least could not be taken away from them without their consent. At that date 1867, any settler could have all the liquor he pleased without a permit if he had the right to manufacture it or sell it. It is to protect his legal right to him in good six months that a quarter of them in this session to-day?

The Hudson Bay Company had a legal right to sell their rum and brandies. Was it respecting their legal right to stop them by fine and imprisonment? Was it putting our case under courts of competent jurisdiction to end out an army of police to stop them? Was it to search for liquor and to bring us before a police officer or a magistrate, and no appeal from him? There is an appeal now to a stipendiary, but in that appeal they take away the jury which they have in other provinces and put us in the hands of a stipendiary magistrate who is not a court of competent jurisdiction. It would offend the will of the government and is independent of the government as all other judges are.

What does the address mean that Canada will enhance the welfare of these territories by giving them political institutions bearing analogy to those of other provinces?

It does not mean the North West Council that is certain for it bears no analogy whatever to the political institutions of the provinces, as the government rules there again, and always has so far kept a majority of its opponents there, and has kept the council from having any powers whatever that could help or advance the country.

It is certain that on the terms on which we were admitted that we ought to-day to have a council whether elective, with the same powers as those of other provinces, and that every right that we had on December 17, 1867 in this country we have to-day, and that our right is taken away by our own consent. Then if we had our rights to-day our council would have the power to legislate us to selling spirituous liquors, the Dominion made an attempt to violate the terms on which British Columbia was admitted, the imperial parliament made Canada independent, and that our right is taken away by our own consent. Then if we had our rights to-day our council would have the power to legislate us to selling spirituous liquors, the Dominion made an attempt to violate the terms on which British Columbia was admitted, the imperial parliament made Canada independent, and that our right is taken away by our own consent.

1. That any right a corporation, company, or individual had on the 16th day of December 1867 can be taken away by our own consent.

2. That we are to-day entitled to political institutions similar to the other provinces, and with like powers of legislation.

3. That the Dominion has broken the terms of the agreement by which she obtained the power to legislate for us, and that the right represented by the agreement period authorities we would be guaranteed proper legislation and would again be made a crown colony independent of the Dominion.

4. That on appeal the law passed as regards the constitution of our country, powers of the North West council, and legislation as regards spirituous liquors, would be held as not in accordance with the terms under which we became part of Canada, and are therefore illegal.

MINSTRELS.

Bird's-Freedom Kenley—Celestial Tails.

The entertainment put upon the boards by the Calgary ministers Thursday was no good that it merits a more serious criticism. It was really only a collection of bawdy songs upon Calypso performances. It was so creditable, in fact, that if the minister could only be persuaded to go on a singing tour to MacLeod and elsewhere, there would be little to fear for their success.

The general nature of the entertainment was the same as that put upon the Calgarians. There was Geo. Kenley, a clever nonsense as usual, and character song, Bowser's comic song with the tango—all favorites with the audiences. Standard comic songs were also introduced, but there were one or two additions that were very good indeed, which were greatly admired. Master Ben. Geissin's performances as an acrobat, he gave a amount of nerve for such a youngster that we expect he will be running around the country in a few months.

Mr. Weinstock also appeared in a Chinese character, a never one it will be after the railway is completed. The impersonation was so good that a little more of it would not have gone amiss. We understand however that a Chinese play is to be given presently which will be certainly of attraction.

A stamp speech, which elicited considerable laughter, delivered by Mr. Kenley, in his usual happy manner, was also a notable feature of what must be considered a good entertainment. The collection show which was given at the end of the evening was also very good.

Some annoyance was felt by the company on account of the unexplained absence of Mr. Haldiman, who had been billeted to pay the accountments. Mr. Wylie was not in the place, and the place, but of course the failure of the performer at the last moment was always annoying.

A second entertainment will be given to-night when on entirely new programme will be produced.

From the Edmonton Bulletin.

A number of Battleford Indians and some of Big Bear's relatives are massing around the Siksika settlement and Bear's Hill reserve for no good end.

People at Battleford and Prince Albert are very anxious for the sitting of a claim commission to settle their rebellious losses. If their claims are not settled shortly hardships will befall them.

The Government have, it is learned, under consideration the organization of a different system of service than that which now exists. Instead of confining detachments in the different forts, regularly organized patrols cover to over large areas, it will be thought, prove more effective.—Ottawa Free Press.

Capt. Vaughan has traced the Big Hill seam of coal to the other side of the river to within 50 yards of the track, where his company is now engaged in opening it. The coal is of excellent quality and in the face of coming winter we hope devoutly the competition amongst coal merchants will be keen.

Messrs. Clark and Beaudoin have almost finished the additions to their saloon. They are now engaged in the main saloon which will be used for musical entertainments, and a private club room at the back. The saloon is now open to the public.

Mr. F. Padmore has received several specimens of feline from his uncle between Silver City and the Oregon line. He has given the name of the Eldon Mine from the siding close to it. He intends to send them to Salt Lake City for assay.

All our local exchanges inform us that Sept. Dease is either on the way to Calgary or is actually now here. We have not yet, however, had the pleasure of meeting him.

Mr. Hallam, who recently visited Calgary to purchase wool in the district has exhibited some samples in Toronto. In the opinion of judges in that city the wool will compare favorably with that sent to the trade by the Fiber Co. It is described as medium fine, and can be sold in the market at a price between the ordinary and the Southdown fleece. Mr. Hallam predicts a great future for this industry out here.

The youngest son of Mr. Field of Field & Barnett, fell down stairs last night and broke his arm. The little boy is doing as well as can be expected.

The auction sale of Government horses continues at day by day. The auctioneer, Price still keeps high, though rather lower than yesterday. The sale will commence 10 a.m. Monday.

A bell and a brass tablet are to be placed in the Church of the Redeemer in memory of Capt. Lowrie, who was killed at Cut Knife Creek. The tablet is to be placed to the left of the altar. The tablet is to be inscribed as follows: "In memory of Capt. Lowrie, who was killed at Cut Knife Creek, Aug. 1885."

Mr. Joe Bannerman, who has recently been to play at Battleford, reports that the whole settlement there is in such a nest of nests that they are to be present at the annual meeting of the Indian Department in the fall. Mr. Bannerman added, however, that one or two gentlemen who are in receipt of some $1,500 per annum, were as ready as the rest of them to take the place of the Indian headmen of the Government. The reason to show that there is something about Government paper which fascinates the wealthiest of mortals.

The auction sale of Government stores took place at 9 o'clock this morning. The sale was in the same line as those of the "Indian saddle" and Chicago prints, which freight added. Parish & Co. got 200 lbs of oats at 1 cent per pound. The sale of horses in the afternoon at Sandy McDonald's stables disappointed those who expected a large number of Indians to repatriate the town in the best possible shape in the country for stock. The horses, who were committed for trial, have been converted to Victoria to be tried.

Mr. King has had a new office put up at the back of his store, which when finished will add greatly to its appearance and comfort.

Mr. McLean, Register, has gone up to the hills south of Bow River and is acting in his place.

Mr. Layton, statistician of the Department of Agriculture, who is stopping at the Royal Hotel, prepared to say that the enumeration will not take longer than two months, and the subsequent publication of the blue-book, not more than six.

Cannot the weekly experience of every teamster on the trail, tell the story of the eastbound trail of the main track before the trail for the west arrives?

The main trail is, as a rule, on time, but is delayed from reaching the platform by the other trail being in the way. It is half an hour after the proper time before the mail matter was delivered off the trail.

The teamster which the company is bringing from its mill to the hill will be finished in ten days and the mill will be in operation in another ten days. The teamster is to be paid for about three weeks, this fall and then close down, sawing for the season. A blower of British sports and pastimes in 14 years is nearly to appear. It will include every kind of modern sport and the contributors are all men well known in their different lines. The whole is edited by the Duke of Beaufort.

Lord Melgund, in an article in the current number of the "Sporting and Ceramic" deals with the recent campaign in the Northwest, has dealt with the whole question, the complaints of the half-breeds, the general feeling in the Northwest, the rising of the Indians, and the exploits of the Canadian troops, in the material and especially in the words which might be expected of an Imperial officer. He considers H. H. the minnow creature, whom he named his son, had been bought out of the country last autumn." The article is well worth perusal.

From Monday's Daily Herald.

Sergt. Turner returned from the mountaineers to-day.

Cole, Whitehead and Jackson and Dr. Roddick passed through on their way to the mountains by day's train.

MacLeod and Mr. C. E. Deany returned to Macleod yesterday.

Mrs. Brett and Mrs. Lindsay, with their families, have followed their husbands to the mountains.

From Tuesday's Daily Herald.

Mr. McNeill senior has returned from McLeod.

During the absence of Mr. M. P. Thompson of Thomas Bros. in the east to purchase his fall stock, his brother Mr. J. A. Thompson will attend to the business in Calgary.

Mr. McLean, registrar, has returned to town after a visit to the hot springs. Lt. Col. Whitehead and Jackson are in town.

From Thursday's Daily Herald.

Visitors are coming in fast to the steamer, some for Big Bend, some to see the sights and some to see what they can make.

The accommodation for the Banffine Hotel is being largely improved. The steamer is putting up a new jail, office and stables.

This looks as if they intended to "hold the fort" for some time. Perhaps trouble is expected after the completion of the road with the arrival of men of all nationalities who will be left to their own devices.

A government post office has been established here, and mail matter is distributed from the east, west and from Spokane Falls. Mr. Stewart is postmaster.

MURDER NEAR FARWELL.

A man shot dead in a Saloon—Arrest of the Murderer—Coroner's Inquest—The Verdict is Murder.

A man was shot dead on Sunday, Aug. 26, in the Church of the Redeemer in memory of Capt. Lowrie, who was killed at Cut Knife Creek. The man, who was a citizen of the town, was immediately brought to the police station of the bartender the same day. On the Tuesday following an inquest was held by Mr. Spratt, the coroner for the district, and the inquest jury found the man killed by the Government. The reason to show that there is something about Government paper which fascinates the wealthiest of mortals.

The auction sale of Government stores took place at 9 o'clock this morning. The sale was in the same line as those of the "Indian saddle" and Chicago prints, which freight added. Parish & Co. got 200 lbs of oats at 1 cent per pound.

The sale of horses in the afternoon at Sandy McDonald's stables disappointed those who expected a large number of Indians to repatriate the town in the best possible shape in the country for stock.

The horses, who were committed for trial, have been converted to Victoria to be tried.

Chief McMillan Once More.

Not content with taking all the honor and glory for a capture which he did not make, Chief McMillan is doing his best to blacken the name of the man who did make the surprising effort. He deftly has in attained the ends of justice, and further states that Chief Constable Ingram was twice reprimanded by Col. McLeod for his conduct.

His enemies here do return, and rightly refuse to give up a prisoner, charged with so serious an offence, to a man, of whom they knew nothing, and who had not even a warrant with him to show, and Col. McLeod's reprimand.

He further accuses the police here of attempting to cover up a crime which they found out that they had to give up. His information came from Gilbert himself, a quite sufficient guarantee of its utter correctness.

It is one of the most elementary axioms of police officers that a man who has been accused of a crime has a right to say anything once the hands are off him, if he thinks it will afford any gratification to his captors.

NOTES.

The net profits of the Canadian Pacific railway from January 1st to June 30th were $114,000.

The Russians are planning a new town at Merv. The English are sublising a new railroad through Persia to Afghanistan.

Mr. G. F. Clarke, Forest Ranger, has received the additional appointment of Inspector of Homesteads for this district. We extend our congratulations.

It is reported in Battleford that Wolverton, Big Bear's son, is camped at the Nose, 140 miles southwest of that place with about twenty other Indians, all well armed and determined not to surrender. They are apparently hunting domestic cattle.

The London Society for the Suppression of Vice has detectives employed to follow members of Parliament and report where they visit. The members are furious.

A regular stampede is under way to the placer diggings in the Three Buttes. Unpleasantness is likely to arise as the diggings are on Indian lands.

Deaths from cholera in Spain average 1,000 a day to-day, reaching the highest point of the big towns. In the country districts the villages are deserted the sick are abandoned to their fate and the dead left unburied.
